HCGC AND NESTOR ADVISORS TRAINING - DEEP DIVE 1 - BOARDS AND INTERNAL CONTROL: THE DIRECTOR VIEW - LAW 4706/2020, 4548/2018 AND BEYOND

AGENDA – WEDNESDAY, APRIL 21ST 2021 (3PM-6PM ATHENS TIME)

Chapter	Topic	Sub-Topics (indicative)
	Introduction and agenda
Introduction	A renewed context
Internal Controls	Introduction to internal controls	 Internal controls: what it is and what it is not Internal control frameworks The model of three lines Whistleblowing The importance of culture and ethics
Risk Management	Board's role in risk governance	Board's role as per best practice: high level view
	Introduction to risk management	Components of a risk management system
	Risk reporting	What are risks for the board
	Crisis management	Board's role in crisis management
Compliance	Introduction to compliance	 Why pay attention to compliance? Mission and objectives of the function Organisation and positioning of compliance The head of compliance: responsibilities and expected competences
	Board's role	What the board should know and do
	Compliance programme	What is it?The key pillars of a compliance programme
Break – 15 minu	ites
Internal Audit	Introduction to IA	 Contribution of IA to the organisation New law: the IA "Department" is upgraded to "Unit", with enhanced organisation
	IA responsibilities	IA responsibilities, law and best practice perspectives
	Competencies of the head of the IA unit	Expected competencies: law and best practice

Chapter	Topic	Sub-Topics (indicative)
	IA staffing, competencies and resource	IA unit sizeEnsuring effectiveness of IA resources
	IA key procedures	IA charterIA planAssessing the IA unit
	Board's role via the audit committee in overseeing IA	Best practice responsibilities of the audit committee regarding IA
Concluding remarks			