

Athena Vounatsou is a lawyer, member of the Athens Bar Association and Senior Advisor at the Department of Business Environment and Regulatory Affairs of the Hellenic Federation of Enterprises (SEV) since 2016, actively contributing to the field of corporate governance and the work of the respective working committee of SEV.

She has previously attained the position of tax consultant at Deloitte Business Solutions, served as a consultant to the General Secretary of Commerce of the Greek Ministry of Economy and Development and as a member of the Supervisory Board of the General Electronic Commercial Registry (G.E.MI). She has also served as a competition expert of the Competition Directorate of the OECD for the third project of assessment of the competition conditions in selected sectors of the Greek economy (Competition Assessment Toolkit).

She is a graduate of the Law School of the Aristotle University of Thessaloniki and the Queen Mary University (LLM in Corporate & Commercial Law).